UNAUTHORIZED BANKING.—The following are the provisions of chapter 41 of the Revised Statutes, entitled "Of Unauthorized Banking."
Section 1. No incorporated company, without authority by law, shall be in any manner concerned in receiving deposits, making discounts, or issuing notes or other evidences of debt, to be loaned or put into circulation as money; and any director, officer, agent, or officer of any incorporated company, who shall violate any provision of this section, shall forfeit one thousand dollars.

Section 2. No person, or association of persons, or body corporate, except such bodies corporate as are expressly authorized by law, shall issue any bills or promissory notes, or other evidences of debt, for the purpose of loaning them, or putting them in circulation, as money, unless authorized by law; and any person, or association of persons, or body corporate, who shall violate any provision of this section, shall forfeit one thousand dollars.

Section 3. No person shall pay, give, or receive in payment, or to any way circulate, or attempt to circulate, as money, any bank bill, or promissory note, check, draft, or other evidences of debt, which shall purport to be for the payment of a sum of money, or to be payable otherwise than in the lawful money of the United States; and any person who shall willfully violate any of the provisions of this section, shall forfeit one thousand dollars.

At one time, several of our citizens entertained the idea of issuing tickets or due bills to supply the increasing want of silver change, and in one case the project had progressed so far that the printing of checks upon one of our banks for 25 cents and 50 cents had been ordered by one of our most responsible business men. This statute, however, interposed so formidable an obstacle that the plan was abandoned by all.

The North British Review for November, Scott's reprint, has been received. The North British is a very able supporter of conservative and philosophical views, and its literary criticisms are conducted with much ability and fairness. The present number contains among other interesting articles, a paper on "American Humor," in which the writings of Lowell, Holmes, Emerson and Irving are highly commended.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. John P. Herick of Milwaukee, a new church (Swedenborgian) clergyman, will lecture at the Court Room to-morrow, (Sunday) at 2½ o'clock in the afternoon. Subject—Swedenborg's method of interpreting the sacred scriptures.

Rev. Mr. Goodspeed will deliver the second of his course of lectures on "The Family," to-morrow evening at the Baptist church.

DEATH OF F. M. REUBLE, OF NEVADA.—On Monday night last, at 9 o'clock, this gentleman breathed his last, at Nevada city. For two months past, Mr. Reuble had suffered under the combined attacks of erysipelas, ague, rheumatism and mountain fever; but endowed by nature with a constitution capable of withstanding great exposure and suffering, he seemed to have conquered them all, and was seen around his cabin door frequently during the past ten days, apparently recovering. But the hopes of his many friends were doomed to a speedy and a bitter disappointment, for last night he sank to his eternal rest, amid a group of affectionate and sorrowing friends.

Mr. Reuble was a native of Vermont, was about 44 years of age, and came to the mountains in June last, from La Crosse, Wis., where he owns considerable property, and where his wife and child now reside. His remains will be taken to Wisconsin for interment.

Mr. Reuble was one of the earliest settlers of La Crosse, where his kind heart and noble heart have left many enduring monuments among the people. Possessed of business ability and enterprise of no ordinary kind, he did more to sustain and develop the lumbering and farming interests of La Crosse than any other of its citizens. When times were hard, his generous hand supported many through their darkest days, and among his own people his memory will be forever green. Here Mr. Reuble was one of our best and most enterprising citizens. Connected as he was, with the La Crosse mill here, he was constantly employed in the development of this country; and by his upright course and agreeable manners, endeared himself to our citizens generally. His untimely and unexpected death is deeply deplored by all who know him.

The above, Messrs. Editors, we clip from the Rocky Mountain News of Nov. 28th, and we would request its insertion in your paper, that we may add a few words in remembrance of Bro. Reuble.

We made his acquaintance soon after his arrival in the mines, and that acquaintance soon ripened into a close intimacy. To know him was to love him. Add to all his other good qualities, was his high toned christian character. He was indeed a child of God, and we all knew every time just where to find him. He was one of the founders of our Union church of the Rocky mountains, and as far as we know, is the first one that is counted worthy to be "called home." His departure will be severely felt by the church of La Crosse, of which Rev. Mr. Chapin is pastor, having been one of its deacons. He was for years one of the most active business men of Racine, and emigrated from that place to La Crosse, Peace to his ashes.

The inhabitants of Rock county have much to be thankful for, from the fact that of the large number who went from this county to that section of country, not one has been removed by death, as far as we know.

Yours, C.

The permanent adjustment of the present dispute between the free and slave states in this country must rest upon the adoption and acquiescence in the principle that slavery is a state institution. The idea of the supreme court and the democratic party that it is national, and should have the protection of the national government must be abandoned. There can be no accommodation of the conflicting elements now at work, without a recognition of this idea. It is not changing the policy heretofore adopted on that subject—it is simply bringing the government back to the course pursued from the organization of the government down to the inauguration of Mr. Buchanan when he declared that slavery was as lawful in Kansas as in Georgia.

The first step towards a settlement of difficulties, should, therefore, be taken by the south. The free states cannot make a move towards a compromise without abandoning the whole that they contend for, and permitting slavery to become a national institution. There is now no way of dividing and compromising such a principle—we must have the whole, or if we yield at all, we give up the entire subject in dispute. So we have said, and we reiterate the declaration, there can be no compromise.

If the slave states are willing to come back to the old method of dealing with slavery as a local institution, depending solely upon state laws for its existence, there can be peace. If they are willing to humanize the fugitive slave law by proper amendments, and treat northern citizens as having the same rights that they possess themselves, all existing difficulties can be settled; but if they insist upon taking the whole, demanding that we shall acknowledge fealty to their institution and permit it to rule our national and state governments, there never can be a reconciliation. Let them, and all northern doughfaces remember that.

The Union Savers.

It will be seen by the telegraphic dispatches, that the professional Union saviors, Messrs. Fillmore, Hunt, Brooks & Co., have had a private and select meeting among themselves to see if something cannot be done to keep South Carolina from going out. It is proposed to send Mr. Fillmore as commissioner to that important state to coax them to stay. Inasmuch as Mr. F. declared, in 1855, that the south ought not to submit to the election of Mr. Fremont, we cannot see what good reason he can give to them that should induce them to remain under Mr. Lincoln's administration. We hope, if the South Carolinians do not acquiesce in the proposal of Mr. F., that they will induce him to stay with them, for he is not wanted in the north.

Those editors who talk most of radicalism and insist upon their devotion to principle so strongly that they find no one quite up to their mark, are as likely to fail in their duty, when put to the test as those who say little about what ought to be done, but endeavor to act up to the mark of right, as nearly as possible.

It has also come under observation that that class of editors who are always twaddling about publishing a live paper with vim in it, generally outdo the dullest in practice. No doubt they are sincere and desire to be lively, but their brains would let them. We know of two or three of that sort in this state, and the papers they edit, or have edited, are milk and water, with an immense disproportion of the latter fluid. Who can account for it?

Senator Wigfall of Texas says the more he reads the President's message the less he understands it. We don't wonder.

Shall we look for the cause in the Senator or the message, or both? According to all reports, the Senator is a model of clear-headed sobriety, and the message a remarkably lucid and consistent exposition of the views of the writer! What, then, is the trouble? We fear the staid and sedate Wigfall is poking fun at the distinguished "old public functionary."

Northern men at Washington insist, to the fire eaters that when we are rid of them, the north will acquire Mexico by peaceful treaty, and make free states of it. The fire eaters don't like the idea.

Mr. Buchanan declares that in all contested cases under the fugitive slave law during his administration, the fugitive has been restored to the owner. The pretence that the fugitive slave law is not enforced is, according to this authority, not true, and so falls to the ground the chief of southern grievances.

The Detroit Tribune says that Mrs. Burch and her mother will take up their residence this winter in Detroit.

The Chicago Times declares that Massachusetts is determined to rend the union asunder, but it has not a word to say to the state of South Carolina, which declares that she has done it.

Rockford has contributed $168.05 in money and provisions to the Kansas relief fund. Very well done.

We understand that a southerner, with a secession cockade on his hat, paraded the streets of Chicago, the other day; but no one disturbed him, or said ought to him. The people of the west have too great a degree of civilization to molest a man for his opinions, however offensive they may be.

On Thursday afternoon dressed hogs sold in Chicago at $4.60 to $5.62. The wheat market was buoyant and No. 1 spring sold for 75¢ to 76¢.

The Destination of the Settlers in Kansas.

We are permitted to publish the following letter to A. W. Smith of Mount Zion in this country, from his brother, who resides about twelve miles north of Fort Scott, in Kansas. Its simple, and no doubt truthful description of the situation of the unfortunate settlers in Kansas, will reach the heart more certainly than the most eloquent appeal, and we publish it just as it was written, not for publication, but only for the eyes of friends. Read it, imagine yourself in the same situation—and then send such relief as is in your power:

Rockford, K. T., Nov. 18, 1860.

DEAR BROTHER:—I sit down to-night to inform you of our health, circumstances, etc. My family are all well at this time, except myself. I have not been able to lay by any for two months. It goes hard to be laid up at this time, when starvation is at the door, and that is truly the situation of hundreds here at this time, myself and family included. We have just finished husking our crop of corn; we had thirty acres, and have got out ten bushels that will do for bread, but only because it has to do. We have used about half of that, and when the balance is gone, God only knows where the next is to come from. There is not a bushel to be had here for love or money—but there is none of either here.

Kansas is truly in a lamentable condition. There has been talk of help from the states, but talk went stop hunger, and we are not only hungry but we are naked; our children must now have recourse to mother Eve's expedient to cover their nakedness. But "misery likes company," and we have plenty now. I can see no other way for us to live through but our friends must lend a helping hand, and if we are never able to remunerate them, there is a Being above who never lets a good action go unrewarded.

You wrote that I had better leave and go where provisions are plenty. Now, that I cannot well do; I have nothing to go with. All I have in the world is here in my claim, and if I leave, I lose it, and if I can stay until it rains it will bring me a thousand dollars. Now if you and the other boys are a mind to help me through you shall not lose by it. Abel wrote me some time ago that he would bring or send me some provisions, but since that I can hear nothing from him. If I had $20 or $30 dollars in money I could pinch along until spring; then I could turn out to grass, if there is no other way.

We expect if we can hold on to our land that the next administration will bestow them upon us. Our land is to be offered for sale next month, but the settlers are not going to allow one foot of land to be sold. The people of Kansas can do most anything they like except make it rain, and if it don't rain they can't raise anything.

Now, I wish you to reflect upon what must be my situation—a thousand miles from friends, with a large family, and out of health, out of money, out of clothing, out of provisions and out of credit, (though that is an article that does not exist in this country); the motto is "cash up, or hands off." Provisions are not so very high at the river—flour is $3.50 per hundred, bacon about 10 cts. per pound, corn meal 50 cts per bushel—but it takes money to buy it, and that is not here. There is nothing going on by which a dollar can be earned.

But I think I have written enough on this uninteresting subject—now I leave the matter with you. If you can send me a few dollars without distressing yourself, for God's sake, my family's sake, and my sake, please do so.

Your brother until death,

A. K. SMITH.

WISCONSIN GAME LAW.—The following are the 1st and 2d sections of the game law of this state, which we publish by request:

"SECTION 1.—No person or persons (except Indians not civilized) shall kill, destroy or take, by any gin, snare, trap, device, contrivance, or means whatever, any woodcock between the first day of December, and the first Tuesday of July following; or any snipe, grouse, prairie hen or chicken, between the first day of December, and the first Tuesday of August following; or any partridge, ruffed grouse, or quail, between the first day of December and the first Tuesday of September following, in each and every year; and no person or persons shall, at any time, take or catch, by means of any trap, snare, device or contrivance whatever, any quail, grouse, ruffed grouse, partridge, prairie hen or chicken, except upon his own premises, and during the time above described for taking or killing the same.

"SEC. 2.—Any person or persons who shall trap, snare, kill or destroy, or take by any device, means or contrivance whatever, or sell or expose for sale, any woodcock, snipe, quail, partridge, ruffed grouse, prairie hen or chicken, during the time when the taking or killing of the same is prohibited by the first section of this act, or shall have either or any of said birds in his, her or their possession or custody, after the time ceases for killing or taking said birds, shall, upon conviction, suffer the fine or penalty of $2 for each and every woodcock, snipe, quail, partridge, ruffed grouse, prairie hen or chicken, so trapped, snared, killed, destroyed, sold, or exposed for sale, or had in his, her, or their possession or custody."

A SUNDAY EVENING ENTERTAINMENT.—The Milwaukee Free Democrat says that "Surgeon DeVilliers" and an "Unknown Military Man" will give an exhibition of the sword exercise in that city Sunday evening, in the Academy of Music. The "unknown" champion is reported to be Gen. McManis. The notice of the Democrat says—"The Major will at the same time introduce the Zouave drill, and the entire entertainment will be of an exceedingly varied and interesting nature. Doors open at 7, performance to commence at 8 precisely. Admittance 25 cents. Tickets to be had at the door."

Is this a usual Sabbath entertainment in the "brick city?"

A crust of bread, a pitcher of water, and a thatched roof, and here—there is happiness for you whether the day is rainy or sunny. It is the heart that makes the home, whether the eye rests upon a potatoe patch or a flower garden.

Go to church to-morrow.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Col. Fremont was expected to arrive in New York city on Wednesday, from California.

PRAYERS FOR THE UNION.—Several of the prominent New York churches have held special seasons of prayer for the preservation of the Union.

The ladies of Norfolk, Va., wear a blue cockade on their bosoms as they promenade the streets.

The official vote of the tenth congressional district of New York elects St. John, dem., to congress, instead of Van Wyck, rep., previously reported as elected.

A DOUBLE FOOL.—A woman is either worth a great deal or nothing. If good for nothing, she is not worth getting jealous for; if she be a true woman, she will give no cause for jealousy. A man is a brute to be jealous of a good woman—a fool to be jealous of a worthless one; but is a double fool to cut his throat for either of them.

IGNORANCE.—It was high time for Cobb to resign the treasury department when he had ceased to "shell out."

THE ALABAMA BAPTISTS.—The New Orleans Crescent, while sympathizing with their sentiments, sternly rebukes the Baptists of Alabama, who passed secession resolutions at their late general conference. It recommends them to attend to religious matters, and let politics alone, and they would do wisely to adopt the recommendation.

The venerable Governor Morehead, of Kentucky, owns a large plantation in Mississippi. He is now in that state, and has responded to several invitations to address the people on the subject of secession. He takes decided ground against that heresy; but his views have not been very cordially responded to.

PERILOUS SITUATION AND FORTUNE ESCAPE.—On the 8th inst. as Mr. Jesse Van Ness, of West Point, Columbia county, was mounting his horse it became restive, and starting before he had fairly got his seat threw him to the ground, and he was dragged along several rods with his left foot hanging in the stirrup. After getting a kick, which cut through the scalp, his foot slipped from the boot and left him bruised in the road, half a mile from any house, but feeling grateful for his narrow escape he managed to get up and reached home.

COLLEGE HAZING.—The process of "hazing" which the faculty of Harvard college recently punished by expulsion, is thus described:

"You send your boy of sixteen, seventeen or eighteen years to college. He enters the freshman class. Away from home among strangers, perhaps a little homesick, he appears 'green' or 'spooner.' But he mends his own business, and knuckles to his task. Not so with the impudent fellows of the class above him. The sophomores immediately conceive the idea of 'putting through' your boy. They have various ways of doing this. They take him of a cold night and put him under a pump, and after he is well wet and chilled, let him go home to his bed and a sore throat; or, perhaps, they will get him into a room, and there try to 'smoke him out,' by burning tobacco in the stove and keeping up a continual puffing of cigars and pipes, and when they find him becoming pale and sick, leave him with laughter. Or, if he is a nervous or sensitive boy, they will try to 'lighten him up' by compelling him to go to bed, and fold him into a darkened room and then show him hideous things. There are various other ways of 'hazing' such as ducking in a tub of cold water, getting the novice drunk, etc. If the boy has spirit enough to resist these outrageous insults, he is told that the result of resistance will be discomfiture and annoyance during his whole college life, and we have known instances where this was the case."

You will be likely to ask in what part of the 'joke' 'the laugh comes in,' and your boy, of course, feels inclined to put the same question, and so are we.

They have carried this thing so far in Harvard college, that in one or two cases lives were endangered, and the students were unable to do any study during the whole term.

The faculty of the college, therefore made an example of eight sophomores, who were caught 'hazing' some poor freshmen, and gave them leave of absence, for a year, to learn at home less brutal manners.

RASCALRY IN BUSINESS CIRCLES.—The Chicago Evening Journal says: "The rumor is widely circulated in this city, that two parties, the one a banker and the other a liquor merchant, both well known in business circles, have victimized several business firms in this city and in Philadelphia, to the amount of $40,000, and have absconded in company to Australia. The banker obtained about twenty thousand dollars from parties in Philadelphia, for investment, upon which he had paid regularly ten per cent. interest and forwarded to his creditors bogus trust deeds and mortgages, with a bogus seal of the circuit court attached, in some instances forging the name of his own father, and ran away with the principal. The liquor merchant obtained between ten and twenty thousand on forged bills of lading attached to drafts, from a banking firm in this city, and cleared out in company with his friend, leaving the banking firm in a lurch. Both parties sailed from New York, for Australia a few days since. It is to be hoped that they will land in Botany Bay."

Lined Men.—The Prairie Farmer has a very sensible article on "Cheap Hired Men," in which it dissents from the practice of hiring such men as can be had cheap. The Farmer says:

They work as they eat—mechanically. They have no reason for laboring, except because they are paid for it. They are hired cheap, fed, it may be, cheaply, are worked hard, and obey orders literally, asking no questions. They drudge like the slave number of miles. Their intelligence, their knowledge, is not paid for. Their employer did not suppose they had any beyond the mechanical skill to handle a hoe, an ax or a pitchfork, hold a plow or drive a team. He did not even ask if they possessed any such knowledge—did not test their judgment and good common sense, before engaging them for a year at the cheapest possible rates.

So the reader will discover what we mean by cheap hired men. He will discover the character of the employer. We have met men who will not have a cheap man about them. Why? Because they find it costs more of their own time to watch and direct them, to prevent the waste and breakage, to repair tools broken and correct errors committed, than it costs of money to hire intelligent, skillful, systematic men.

A western editor wished to induce a farmer to subscribe to his paper, but his objection was that it was not an agricultural sheet. The editor decided it was, and in proof exhibited an article on "Sowing Wild Oats."

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

TARANTOWN, N. J., Dec. 14. The sloop Garrigue Dewarst, from New York, was upset in a squall last evening at Irvington. A sailor named Moore, of Oswego, will probably die; his legs are frozen. They were not rescued till 7 o'clock this morning. Persons heard them but would not help them.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15. A meeting of prominent merchants and politicians of the city and state was held at noon to-day, at the office of Richard Lathrop, on Pine street, to consult as to the best means to be adopted to avert danger now threatening the Union, and to assure to the south sufficient protection to their constitutional rights within the Union. The meeting was called by a circular addressed to leading citizens without distinction of political views, and was well attended. Among the present were ex-President Van Buren, congressman Israel P. Hatch, of Buffalo, Washington Hunt, Watts Sherman, Erastus Brooks, James T. Brady, Edwin Crosswell, C. Constock of the Albany Atlas and Argus, Girard Halet, John W. Beckman, Fernando Hunt, Augustus Schell, Richard Lathrop and many other gentlemen of prominent position as merchants and public men. The condition of the Union was freely discussed and several suggestions made, one of which was, that Millard Fillmore be requested to proceed to South Carolina as commissioner from the state of New York, to exert temperate action and delay on the part of the former state.

It was understood that Mr. Fillmore would accept the duty if desired, but he expressed the belief that the mission would be unsuccessful unless he could bear with him some of the leading and ablest of the party from the party about to assume control of the government. No definite action has yet been determined on by the meeting.

Chas. O'Connor presided and speeches were made by John A. Dix, John McKean and others. Mr. McKean expressed the opinion that the Union was already dissolved. That it would be a peaceful separation until after the 4th of March. That civil war would then ensue. At half past one o'clock the meeting adjourned on a motion to appoint commissioners to proceed to South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15. Rumors are in circulation that Secretary Thompson has resigned but there authority for saying that such is not his present intention.

Senator Benjamin, it is stated will at an early opportunity make a secession speech. Certain secessionists say that France, Russia, Prussia and other European powers will promptly recognize the independence of any seceding state and it is said that a line of French steamers which were intended to run from Havre to New York will be changed from the latter port to New Orleans.

The President's proclamation recommends to the people of the United States to observe the 4th day of January as a day of humiliation, fasting and prayer is officially published. He says hope seems to have deserted the minds of men, and God's arm alone can save us from the awful effects of our crimes and follies.

Boston, Dec. 15. The steamship Europa, arrived here from Halifax at 10 o'clock this morning. The newspaper bag for the associated press was despatched via the New London route and will arrive in New York about 7:30 this evening.

Wendell Phillips will deliver an address in Music Hall to-morrow on the subject of "Mobs and Education." In anticipation of trouble, the military have orders to be in readiness to march from their armories.

GREAT VICTORIA BRIDGE OPEN.
This immense iron structure, nearly two miles in length (the longest in the world), erected across the river St. Lawrence, at Montreal, at a cost of six and a half millions of dollars, to connect the eastern and western divisions of the Grand Trunk Railway, of Canada, is now open for public traffic. This road, of nearly 1,100 miles in length, is operated under one management from Detroit, Mich., to Portland, Me., and there is only ONE CHANGE OF CARS from Chicago or the Mississippi river to Portland or Boston. Quickest and most convenient route for travel between the west and Canada and New England. Passengers paid freight through to all parts of Canada and the New England states, also.

TO AND FROM CHICAGO AND LIVERPOOL, and the continent of Europe, at considerably reduced rates.

and European Mail Steamers, sailing from Portland every Saturday during winter and Quebec during summer, and from Liverpool every Thursday, calling at Londonderry every Friday throughout the year. For further particulars apply to
